To

K.S.Chendrasekhara Aiyar Esquire.,

Secretary to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform His Highness' Government that an Ironsmith on Rs.12/- a month is provided to the Establishment of the Mysore Jail under Government order No. 3033-4 /J 303 dated Bangalore 31st August 1896. This incum-bent is both the blacksmith and carpenter Maistry of the Jail. One Kullachary who held the post till the beginning of 1902 used to get an allowance of Rs.15/- from out of manufacture funds of the said Jail in addition to the pay of Rs.12/-. On his retirement from service on account of old age, another man, his son Appadoraiachari, was appointed to the post in April 1902. Colonel Benson, the then Inspector General of Prisons sanctioned to this man an allowance of only Rs.8/- per mensem from manufacture funds in addition to his legitimate pay of Rs.12/-. This man died and one Rangappa has taken his place since 1st February 1903. The last named incumbent does not get any allowance except his pay as Iron-smith of the Jail.

2. The Superintendent of the Mysore Jail recommends that this Rangappa is a clever workman and the allowance which his predecessors were getting may be continued to him. He states that the man can get 12 to 14 annas a day as wages if he should work outside and from the point of view that con-icts

convicts are taught to earn an honorable livelihood outside the Jail when released, the teacher deserves encouragement.

3. I concur with the opinion expressed above and recommend the sanction of an allowance of Rs.8/- per mensem to the applicant from out of funds provided under the head "Tempo--rary Lump sum" under 16 Bb- Law and Juistice-Jails-(2) Jail manufactures in the current year's budget

4 I may mention here that the carpenter maistry of the Bangalore Central Jail also gets Rs.20/- a month.

5. The application of Iron-smith Rangappa together with the Superintendent's letter giving cover to it are herewith forwarded in original for favor of perusal and obliging return when no longer required

Sir,

In reply to your docket No.J.270/Pris 8-06-2 dated the 28th July 1906 enquiring (1)when and by whom an al--lowance of Rs.15/- was sanctioned to the Ironsmith of the Mysore Jail till 1902,(2)why was it afterwards reduced to Rs.8/- and (3)why it was entirely stopped when the persent incumbent was appointed to the post,I have the honor to state as under:-

(1) When Kullachary was first entertained in April 1892, he was granted,in addition to his pay,an allowance of Rs.8/- This allowance was raised to Rs.13/- in February 1894,and ultimately to Rs.15/- in April 1897.The Jail Superintendent states that it is not clear by whom the allowance was sanc--tioned.As no records on the subject are forthcoming in my office,I could only presume that these allowances were granted by the then Superintendents,possibly in considera--tion of the profitable services of the Ironsmith,and with--out reference to the Inspector General.

(2) The reduction of the allowance to Rs.8/- in Appadora--charry's instance seems to me to be due to an idea that a fresh incumbent should start with the same salary and allowance as his predecessor first started with.Although the then Inspector General satisfied himself that Appado--racharry was a clever workman,he did not grant him at once the maximum allowance of Rs.15/- sanctioned to his prede--cessor only after a long period of approved service.

(3) The allowance was entirely stopped to the persent incumbent incumbent with a view to test his capabality in the work for some time.

As the Superintendent reports that the present incum-bent is a good and capable workman (vide copy of Super-intendent's letter No.608 dated the 22nd inst.herewith enclosed) I recommend him once again for being granted the minimum allowance of Rs.8/- with which two of his pre-decessors were first started.

(1) Kullachary who was entertained on 16th April 1892 as Ironsmith on Rs.12/- per mensem was granted an allowance of Rs.8/- only to start with for carpentry and the same was raised to Rs. 13/- in February 1894 and ultimately to Rs.15/- in April 1897, this allowance being met from the manufacture funds. It is not clear by whom the allowance was sanctioned.

(2) The said allowance of Rs.15/- was reduced to Rs.8/- by the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore in his Proceedings No. 335/J dated the 26th March 1902,when Appadoray Achary succeeded to the above place.

(3) The allowance was temporarily stopped to the present in-cumbent (Rangappa) with a view to recommend him for a reason-able allowance after testing his capability in the work for some time.

(4) He is a good and capable work man and has given every satisfaction in the discharge of his duties; he is therefore strongly recommended for the minimum allowance of Rs.8/- per mensem which both his predecessors were getting."

Sir,

In reply to your letter No.J.1176/Pris.8-06-4 dated the 5th instant, enquiring whether the provision of Rs.8/- per mensem to a carpenter maistry in the Mysore Jail included under "16 B (b) Jail manufactures - establishments, temporary lump sum" in the current year's Budget, may be utilized for the allowance recommended to be given to the ironsmith, I have the honor to report that the provision referred to has been made not to meet the allowance of a carpenter Maistri but that of a Carpet Maistry borne on the establishment of the Mysore Jail.

2. As I find that no portion of the allotment under "Temporary lump sum" can be utilized for the allowance recommended, I suggest, in case the Government fall in with the views of my predecessor with which I quite agree and sanction the allowance, that the expenditure, which cannot be more than 8x7=56 rupees in this year on the presumption that sanction will take effect from the 1st proximo - may be met, by re-appropriation, from funds provided under "Purchase of Raw materials" in the current year's Budget.

The system of granting an allowance to the ironsmith of the Mysore Jail for doing also the work of ~~the Mysore~~ Carpenter mestri seems to date from the year 1892, when one Kallachary was given an allowance of Rs 8/, which was raised to Rs 13 in February 1894 and to Rs 15 in April 1897. This allowance, it is said, was reduced to Rs 8/ in the case of Appadorai Achary, who succeeded Kallacharry & was entirely stopped in the case of Ranjappa, the present incumbent, with a view, it is stated, to test his capacity for work, but the payment seems to have been unauthorised as the Inspector General is unable to quote the authority under which the allowance was granted, raised and reduced at various periods.
